Elections for the school council

School councils represent the views of students, so they’re really important. This year there will be two representatives for each class. If you think you could be one of them, tell your classmates!

Write them an email saying what you’re like. What’s the best thing about you? What are you good at? Tell the class why they should choose you!

5 Read Ed’s email and answer the questions.

Dear Classmates,

I’m Ed Anderson and I want to be your school councillor.

I’m quite a serious person, but I’m also friendly. You can talk to me if you have any problems at school. My friends say the best thing about me is that I always try to help people when I can.

I’m very good at speaking in public and I’m also good at listening. That’s another reason I’m the right person for this job.

You should choose me because I want to help the school and I have lots of good ideas. I promise I’ll make our school better.

I hope you will vote for me!
